Six Geese A Laying Kindle

I read Six Geese-A-Laying which is a very short story going for free in the Kindle store. When I say very short, the story itself is less than 50% of the book that is downloaded, the rest is an advert. That aside, the story is good. In contrast to the other Christmas short I read this year each character felt real and distinct.

The theme this year is "The Twelve Days of Christmas" (hence the six geese), but tribute is also paid to other holidays, including the Hindu Festival of Lights. All seems to be going as well as can be expected, given Meg's zany family, friends, and assorted animals, when her young nephew whispers, "Something's wrong with Santa."

"Six Geese A-Laying" Treasure Hunt! I wanted to keep the hunt simple, yet educational and fun. I decided to concentrate on the number six and emphasise it throughout the activity. I chose four items that related to the lyrics of the song for day six, and collected six of each item: 6 feathers, 6 egg shapes, 6 number sixes, and 6 geese.
